Subject: Neapco Announcement: Introducing Our New Sales Team

To: All Neapco Customers

We are excited to announce that our sales team has been completely refreshed and is ready to serve you!

Our new team brings fresh energy, industry knowledge and a strong commitment to providing the exceptional service and support you deserve. Whether you're a long-time customer or working with us for the first time, you can expect personalized solutions, clear and consistent communication and a customer-first approach.

We appreciate your continued trust and look forward to building even stronger relationships with you. We've provided introductions below along with updated contact information.

Tony Lewis has joined Neapco Components as the Southern Regional Sales Manager.

Tony's career includes more than seven years of aftermarket account management experience with Dana and Tenneco, where he was responsible for sales to automotive and commercial vehicle distributors, as well as buying groups in both markets. He brings valuable market and product knowledge to the Neapco sales team. Prior to these roles, Tony was an intern with Tenneco in Southern California.

Tony will be responsible for sales development and account management throughout the Southern Region of the United States. He resides in the Houston, Texas metro area with his wife, and they are excited to be expecting their first child.

We are confident Tony's experience and industry knowledge will make him a strong addition to our organization, and we look forward to the positive impact he will have in supporting our customers in the Southern Region.

Brie Rehms has assumed the role of Inside Sales Representative. Brie has been with Neapco for over seven years, most recently serving as the Senior Customer Service Representative.

Brie will partner with customers to strengthen relationships and identify opportunities for continued growth. With a diverse background spanning sales, customer service, manufacturing, and advocacy, she brings a collaborative approach and a passion for solving problems. During her time with Neapco, Brie has gained valuable experience supporting both the OEM and Aftermarket sides of the business. Her product expertise, industry knowledge, and commitment to delivering exceptional support make her an outstanding addition to our sales team.

Beyond her professional career, Brie has more than 15 years supporting and advocating for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, an area that is especially meaningful to her.

When Brie is not at work, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, partaking in a round of trivia or card games or relaxing with a crochet project in hand.
